AFFIRMATION

Melissa A. Pisapia, an attorney at law, duly admitted to practice before the Court of the State of New York, hereby affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

1. I am an attorney with the New York Liquidation Bureau (“Bureau”), the organization that carries out the duties of the Superintendent of Financial Services of the State of New York (“Superintendent”) as ancillary receiver (“Ancillary Receiver”) of Villanova Insurance Company (“Villanova”), and make this affirmation upon information and belief, based on my review of the files of Villanova maintained by the Bureau, and, in support of the Ancillary Receiver’s application for an order approving the proposed notice of the establishment of a bar date (“Order”). A copy of a proposed Order is annexed hereto as Exhibit “A.”

2. On July 28, 2003, Villanova, a Pennsylvania property and casualty insurance company licensed to transact insurance business in the State of New York, was placed into liquidation in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (“Domiciliary Liquidation Proceeding”) and the Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and her successors in office were appointed the statutory liquidator of Villanova (“Statutory Liquidator”). A copy of the Pennsylvania order of liquidation is attached hereto as Exhibit “B.”

3. On October 17, 2003, this Court issued an order appointing the then-Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York and his successors in office as Ancillary Receiver of Villanova thereby commencing this ancillary receivership proceeding (“Ancillary Receivership Proceeding”). The Superintendent of Financial Services of the State of New York has now succeeded the Superintendent of Insurance as Ancillary Receiver of Villanova.

4. All claims by Villanova’s policyholders and claimants, whether initially filed with the Statutory Liquidator or the Ancillary Receiver, are processed by the Statutory Liquidator through the Domiciliary Liquidation Proceeding.

5. On April 29, 2015, the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania entered an order establishing July 28, 2015 at 5:00 p.m. E.S.T. (“Claims Bar Date”), as the date by which any claim against Villanova, the Statutory Liquidator, her agents and representatives, or any claim that could affect any assets of Villanova, must be filed with the Statutory Liquidator (“Claims Bar Date Order”). A Copy of the Claims Bar Date Order is attached hereto as Exhibit “C.”

6. Under the Claims Bar Date Order, any claim filed after the Claims Bar Date is untimely and shall be disallowed without consideration of its merits.

7. New York Insurance Law Section 7412(a) permits claims to be filed with either the Statutory Liquidator or the Ancillary Receiver and requires that “all such claims must be filed on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary proceeding.” As such, New York Law requires that the Claims Bar Date established in the Domiciliary Liquidation Proceeding also be effective in the Ancillary Receivership Proceeding.

8. The Claims Bar Date Order required the Statutory Liquidator to provide notice of such order by publication and mailing. The Pennsylvania Court ordered the Statutory Liquidator to publish notice of the Claims Bar Date Order in USA Today, the Philadelphia Inquirer, as well as Business Insurance and, to mail notice by first class mail to, among others,: (a) all Villanova insureds and third-party claimants who filed Proofs of Claim (including their identified counsel); (b) Villanova insureds who had filed contingent Proofs of Claim who received notices of determination because there were no active claims under their policies; and (c) insureds who were issued policies that were in excess of self-insured retentions.

9. Though Villanova's New York policyholders, claimants, and creditors would have received notice of the Claims Bar Date from the Statutory Liquidator, the Ancillary Receiver seeks to provide an additional measure of notice to Villanova's policyholders, claimants, creditors and other interested persons located in the State of New York by: (a) publishing a copy the proposed notice ("Notice"), which is attached hereto as Exhibit "D", in The New York Times, or a publication of similar circulation, within two weeks of entry of the Order; and (b) posting a copy of the Notice, Order and this Affirmation with all its attachments on the Internet web page maintained by the Bureau at <http://www.nylb.org> within five (5) days of entry of the Order.

10. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein to this or any other Court or Judge.

AND NOW, this 25th day of July, 2003, upon consideration of the Petition for Liquidation of Villanova Insurance Company (In Rehabilitation) (Villanova) filed by M. Diane Koken, Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on August 9, 2002, and amended on October 18, 2002, which Petition was contested and resolved in this Court's Opinion and Order of June 26, 2003, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. Villanova is declared insolvent and ordered to be LIQUIDATED pursuant to Article V of The Insurance Department Act of 1921, Act of May 17, 1921, P.L. 789, as amended, 40 P.S. §§221.1 – 221.63 (Article V).

2. The Rehabilitation Order of March 28, 2002, is hereby TERMINATED, effective 12:00 a.m., July 28, 2003.

3. This Liquidation Order is EFFECTIVE 12:01 a.m., July 28, 2003.

4. Insurance Commissioner M. Diane Koken, her successor in office, if any, is hereby APPOINTED Statutory Liquidator of Villanova and directed to take possession of Villanova's property, business and affairs in accordance with Article V.

5. The Liquidator is hereby VESTED with all the powers, rights, and duties authorized under Article V and other applicable statute and regulation.

6. The Opinion and Order of June 26, 2003 entered in this proceeding is hereby INCORPORATED into and made a part of this Order of Liquidation.

ASSETS OF THE ESTATE

7. The Liquidator is vested with title to all property, assets, contracts and rights of actions ("assets") of Villanova of whatever nature and wherever located, held as of the date of filing of the Petition for Liquidation. All assets of Villanova are hereby found to be in custodia legis of this Court and this Court asserts jurisdiction as follows: (a) in rem jurisdiction over all assets of Villanova wherever they may be located and regardless of whether they are held in the name of Villanova or in any other name; (b) exclusive jurisdiction over all determinations as to whether assets belong to Villanova or to another party; (c) exclusive jurisdiction over all determinations of the validity and amount of claims against Villanova; and (d) exclusive jurisdiction over the determination of the priority of all claims against Villanova.

8. The filing of this Order with the Clerk of the Commonwealth Court or with the Recorder of Deeds of the county in which Villanova's principal office or place of business is located (Philadelphia County), shall impart the same notice as is imparted by any deed, bill of sale or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that Recorder of Deeds.

9. The Liquidator is directed to take possession of all assets that are the property of Villanova.

10. The Liquidator is directed to continue telephone, data-processing, water, electric, sewage, garbage, delivery, trash removal and utility services needed by the estate of Villanova by establishing a new account for the Liquidator as of the date of this Order.

11. Villanova's directors, officers and employees, to the extent the following obligations have not been satisfied in the course of Villanova's rehabilitation, shall: (a) surrender peaceably to the Liquidator the premises where Villanova conducts its business; (b) deliver all keys or access codes thereto and to any safe deposit boxes; (c) advise the Liquidator of the combinations or access codes of any safe or safekeeping devices of Villanova or any password or authorization code or access code required for access to data processing equipment; and (d) deliver and surrender peaceably to the Liquidator all the assets, books, records, files, credit cards, and other property of Villanova in their possession or control, wherever located, and otherwise advise and cooperate with the Liquidator in identifying and locating any of the foregoing.

12. Villanova's directors, officers and employees are enjoined from taking any action, without approval of the Liquidator, to transact further business on behalf of Villanova. They are further enjoined from taking any action that would waste the assets of Villanova or would interfere with the Liquidator's efforts to wind up the affairs of Villanova.

13. Except as otherwise provided in this Order, executory contracts to which Villanova is a party to as of the date of this Order may be affirmed or disavowed by the Liquidator within one year of the date of this Order.

CANCELLATION OF INSURANCE COVERAGE

14. All policies or contracts of insurance issued by Villanova, whether issued in this Commonwealth or elsewhere, in effect on the effective date of this Order, are hereby cancelled and terminated for all purposes thirty (30) days from the effective date of this Order. All Villanova policies and contracts of insurance, shall continue in force until one of the following events takes place, whichever occurs first: (a) the cancellation of the policy thirty (30) days from the effective date of this Order by reason of this Order; (b) the normal expiration or termination of the policy or contract; (c) the replacement of insurance coverage provided by Villanova with equivalent insurance with another insurer; or (d) the transfer of the policy obligation by the Liquidator pursuant to Section 523(8) of Article V, 40 P.S. §221.23(8).

WORKERS COMPENSATION AND ACCIDENT HEALTH CLAIMS

15. The Liquidator shall make arrangements for the continued payment of the claims arising under policies of workers compensation and under policies providing accident and health benefits by making Villanova's facilities, computer systems, books records and third party administrators (to the extent possible) available to any guaranty association and to states and state officials holding statutory deposits for the benefit of such workers compensation and accident and health claimants. For a period not to exceed ninety (90) days from the effective date of this Order, the Liquidator is authorized to advance funds for the payment of these claims from the estate of Villanova, and such advances will be deemed to be made in accordance with Section 536(a) of Article V, 40 P.S. §221.36(a). Thereafter, no disbursements shall be made to guaranty associations except in accordance with Section 536 of Article V, 40 P.S. §221.36.

PROOF OF CLAIM FILING

16. All claims against the estate of Villanova, together with proper proof thereof, shall be filed on or before June 30, 2005. No person shall participate in any distribution of the assets of Villanova unless his, her or its claim has been filed with the Liquidator in accordance with the time limit established by the Liquidator, subject to the provisions for the late filing of claims pursuant to Section 537 of Article V, 40 P.S. §221.37.

17. No judgment or order against Villanova or its insureds entered after the date of filing of the Petition for Liquidation, and no judgment or order against Villanova entered at any time by default or by collusion, will be considered as evidence of liability or quantum of damages by the Liquidator in evaluating a claim against the estate of Villanova.

18. In addition to the notice requirements of Section 524 of Article V, 40 P.S. §221.34, the Liquidator shall publish notice in newspapers of general circulation, where Villanova has its principal places of business; and in the national edition of the Wall Street Journal, that: (a) specifies the last day for the filing of claims; (b) explains the procedure by which claims may be submitted to the Liquidator; (c) provides the address of the Liquidator's office for the submission of claims; and (d) notifies the public of the right to present a claim, or claims, to the Liquidator.

19. Within thirty (30) days of giving notice of the event of liquidation, as set forth in Section 524 of Article V, 40 P.S. §221.34, and of the procedures for filing claims against the estate of Villanova, the Liquidator shall file a compliance report with the Court noting, in reasonable detail, the date that and manner by which these notices were given.

DIRECT ACCESS TO REINSURANCE

20. Policyholders asserting a right to proceeds of a reinsurance agreement, to which Villanova was a party, shall pursue that right by filing a petition to intervene with this Court for a determination of whether the reinsurance amounts owed are general assets of the estate of Villanova or assets of the policyholder intervenor. Where policyholder intervenors establish a right to direct access to reinsurance proceeds, Villanova's responsibility for the handling of the policyholder intervenor's claims, if any, terminates, and the policyholder intervenor is vested with exclusive control of claims handling, all claim files and claims-related records. Further, policyholder intervenors may not recover from the estate of Villanova for a claim to the extent it is covered by a reinsurance agreement to which the right of direct access has been established. The petition to intervene shall not, without further order of this Court, serve as the procedure for resolving disputes as to the amounts owed by a reinsurer or other terms and conditions of the reinsurance agreement. Upon good cause shown, such other relief as the Court deems appropriate may be granted the policyholder intervenor.

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

21. The Liquidator shall pay as costs and expenses of administration pursuant to Section 544 of Article V, 40 P.S. §221.44, the actual, reasonable and necessary costs of preserving or recovering the assets of Villanova and the costs of goods or services provided to and approved by the Rehabilitator or by this Court during the period of Villanova's rehabilitation and that are unpaid as of the date of this Order.

22. Distribution of the assets of Villanova in payment of the costs and expenses of estate administration including, but not limited to, compensation for services of employees and professional consultants, such as attorneys, actuaries and accountants, and expenses of a guaranty association in handling claims, shall be made under the direction and approval of the Court. This includes reimbursement to the Pennsylvania Insurance Department for expenses it has incurred in compensating professional consultants, attorneys and other persons it has engaged on behalf of Villanova for the preservation of its assets. Within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this Order, the Liquidator shall submit to the Court a procedure and form of report to be used to obtain the Court's approval of the costs and expenses of administration as reasonable and necessary.

STAY OF LITIGATION

23. Unless the Liquidator consents thereto in writing, no action at law or in equity, including, but not limited to, an arbitration or mediation, the filing of any judgment, attachment, garnishment, lien or levy of execution process against Villanova or its assets, shall be brought against Villanova or the Liquidator, whether in this Commonwealth or elsewhere, nor shall any such existing action be maintained or further prosecuted after the effective date of this Order. All above-enumerated actions currently pending against Villanova in the courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or elsewhere are hereby stayed; relief sought in these actions shall be pursued by filing a proof of claim against the estate of Villanova pursuant to Section 538 of Article V, 40 P.S. §221.38.

24. Unless otherwise agreed to by the Liquidator or by the relevant guaranty association, all actions in which Villanova is or may be obligated to defend a party in any court of law are stayed to the extent provided by applicable law, subject to further order of the Court. The Liquidator may cooperate, upon request of a guaranty association, in seeking a stay of any action. Failure to honor the stay may result in sanctions, including the subordination of a claim to all other claims in the same class.

CORRESPONDENCE

25. Correspondence to the Liquidator (as opposed to counsel to the Liquidator) shall be directed as follows: Statutory Liquidator, Villanova Insurance Company (In Liquidation), One Logan Square, Suite 1400, Philadelphia, PA 19103.

IN THE COMMONWEALTH COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA

In Re: Villanova Insurance Company :
(In Liquidation) : 1 VIL 2002

Re: Application to Establish a Claims Bar Date

ORDER

AND NOW, this 29th day of April, 2015, upon consideration of the Application to Establish a Claims Bar Date filed by Teresa D. Miller, Acting Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in her capacity as Statutory Liquidator of Villanova Insurance Company (Villanova), the Application is GRANTED and it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

1. July 28, 2015, is hereby established as the Claims Bar Date.
2. Any claim against Villanova, the Liquidator, her agents and representatives, or any claim that could affect any assets of Villanova, wherever or however such assets may be owned or held, directly or indirectly, must be filed with the Liquidator no later than the Claims Bar Date.
3. A claim must be filed by means of a completed Proof of Claim form, together with proper proofs supporting the claim. The form of Proof of Claim attached as Exhibit A is approved for use by any claimant who files a claim after the date of this Order. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Proof of Claim received on the original Proof of Claim form for the Villanova estate shall be reviewed by the Liquidator and will be subject to the terms of this Order.
4. A Proof of Claim shall be deemed filed on the day it is received by the Liquidator, unless first class mail is used, in which case it will be deemed filed on the date of the postmark.

5. Any Proof of Claim filed after the Claims Bar Date is untimely and shall be disallowed by the Liquidator without consideration of its merits. This Order bars the filing of any such Proof of Claim after the Claims Bar Date for any reason, including, without limitation, a reason constituting "good cause" under the late claims provisions of Article V of the Insurance Department Act of 1921, 40 P.S. §221.37(b) and (c); the discovery of information not previously known; or the fact that a claim was previously contingent or had not yet matured. Any claim is barred which does not ripen into a legal cause of action prior to the Claims Bar Date, even though the claimant filed a Proof of Claim before the Claims Bar Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a claim ripens into a legal cause of action within 30 days prior to the Claims Bar Date, a timely Proof of Claim may be filed within 30 days after the legal cause of action commenced.

6. The establishment of the Claims Bar Date does not constitute the waiver of any defenses to individual Proofs of Claim. Any and all defenses to such claims remain available to Villanova and the Liquidator, including defenses otherwise based on the untimeliness of the claims.

7. The Claims Bar Date does not apply to, or affect in any way, claims, actions or rights of Villanova or the Liquidator.

8. The establishment of the Claims Bar Date is not an opportunity to refile or reargue a claim previously filed with Villanova, and duplicative Proofs of Claim shall not be submitted. If duplicative Proofs of Claim are filed contrary to this Order, the Liquidator shall disallow them without further consideration of their merits.

9. The Claims Bar Date shall not apply to routine administrative expense claims.

10. The Publication Notice attached as Exhibit B is hereby approved. The Liquidator shall cause a copy of the Publication Notice to be published in USA Today and the Philadelphia Inquirer twice in each publication over a two-week period, and in Business Insurance in two consecutive bi-weekly editions within 30 days of the date of this Order.

11. The Mailing Notice attached as Exhibit C is hereby approved. The Liquidator shall mail by first class mail, as soon as practicable after receipt of this Order, a copy of the Mailing Notice to:

a. all insureds and third party claimants who filed Proofs of Claim (including their identified counsel), but excluding those claimants who have already received Notices of Determination for all of their filed claims;

b. insureds who were issued policies that were excess over self-insured retentions, insureds who are identified to be subject to net worth exclusions from guaranty fund coverage, and other insureds and third-party claimants whose open claims are subject to limited or no coverage by the guaranty funds;

c. insureds who had filed contingent Proofs of Claim who received Notices of Determination because there were no active claims under their policies; the United States Department of Labor, Department of Justice, the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services, the Internal Revenue Service and the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue;

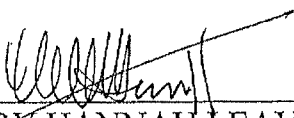

e. all State Insurance Departments; and

f. all Guaranty Associations.
